Impact 100 Young Change Makers

Epiphany Parish Great Hall

1805 38th Ave

Seattle, WA 98122

05:00 PM - 07:00 PM PST

If you want your kids to learn about philanthropy and how to make a difference, now's their chance! We're hosting a special event for members of Impact 100 Seattle to introduce their kids to our grant-making process and applicants — and have some fun along the way.

Kids' Session:

Our two facilitators will lead an interactive discussion about our grant process, trust-based giving, and the key issues affecting our region. The kids will explore possible solutions by learning about our grant finalists, then have the exciting opportunity to cast their own vote. Oh, and of course — there will be pizza!

Due to the nature of the event, it is recommended for kids 8+. Kids need to be able to engage in a conversation, listen, and be respectful to others for about 1.5 hrs.

Parent Social:

While the kids are learning, parents are invited to relax and connect with fellow Impact 100 members in a nearby room.

Bellevue International Theater Festival

Shows Vary

Bellevue International Theatre Festival (BITFest) will be held at the Meydenbauer Center Theater, April 4-6 2025. Come for the entire festival (Festival Pass), just one day (Day Pass) or see an individual show! Seven theaters, 4 states, 4 languages, 3 days, various genres, shows for kids and adults - BITFest will be a feast for the eyes, ears and soul for any theater enthusiast! BITFest 2025 is the inaugural Festival hosted by Theatre33 and represents a forum for community theaters in the greater PNW region and across the US to showcase theatrical productions in world languages. Theatre33 is thrilled to welcome colleagues to showcase their works in the center of Bellevue. The weekend will be filled with performances of different genres in different languages, artistic craftsmanship, engaging discussions, informative workshops and meaningful connections across cultures and theatrical traditions. The main objective of BITFest is to offer the community an immersive experience into the vibrant and diverse world of directors, actors and technical professionals, providing a glimpse into the craft of dramatic arts from multiple perspectives. Theatre33 - Forest Song

Date/Time Varies

From our Grant Applicant, Theatre33:

Forest Song represents the crowning achievement of Lesia Ukrainka's mature period and is a uniquely powerful poetic text. A play in three acts, it seemingly breaks with her intellectually charged social and cultural themes ranging from feminism and the deconstruction of patriarchy to the workings of colonialism even in antiquity. Here, the author presents a symbolist meditation on the interaction of mankind and nature set in a world of primal forces and pure feelings as seen through childhood memories and the re-creation of local Volhynian folklore. The play unfolds in spirited dialogues between characters from Ukrainian mythology and people of the land: Old Man River, the Nymph, two water spirits, Uncle Leo, Luke, Sylph, the peasant woman Kylyna and her mother-in-law. Forest Song is a testament to the power of love to overcome differences and bring one's loved ones back from the dead. Recommended Age 8+.

Women and Democracy - Women at the Capitol

12:00 PM - 09:00 PM PST

From Women and Democracy:

Women at the Capitol 2025

Spend the day with some incredible women, girls, and allies to learn how our government is promoting and progressing rights and opportunities for women and girls in Washington State.

We take buses from around the Seattle area, and people drive from around the State, to Olympia for the day to learn about our State government. We will have afternoon tea and a conversation with the State Supreme Court Justices, a private tour of the capitol, the opportunity to meet your elected officials, and we'll end the day with a reception at the Governor's Mansion where we'll honor some outstanding leaders in the area of women's rights.

The bus rides are a great time to get to know women who are passionate about the causes you are, to get inspired, and (on the way home) cheers our insightful day!

The schedule:

12:00pm | Depart Seattle for Olympia

1:30pm | Tea with the State Supreme Court Justices

3:30pm | Private campus tour & meeting elected officials

5:30pm | Reception with food & wine at the Governor's Mansion

7:00pm | Depart Olympia for Seattle

Government ID is required to enter the Governor's Mansion for all attendees. If you are under 18 you must have a Government or Student ID, or enter with someone over 21.

Buy your tickets today! Early Bird pricing only available until March, 17.
